

Thank you for your interest in applying for a PMI Northern Utah Chapter Professional Award. This document provides additional submission guidelines for your nomination. Please read each section carefully, and sign where directed.

Purpose of the PMI Professional Awards

Project Management Institute (PMI) strives to offer a professional awards program that encourages and recognizes the accomplishments of project management professionals and organizations. You honor superior performance when you nominate excellent projects, project management professionals, training providers and organizations for PMI Professional Awards.

Eligibility

- PMI affiliation is not required to be nominated for an award.
- At least 50% of the project work or PMO staff must be located within Utah.
- Current PMI staff, contractors and/or consultants are not eligible to apply for an award.
- Acts performed under contract to PMI, directly or indirectly, will not be considered.
- Individuals or organizations that have failed to comply with PMI policies and procedures, including but not limited to PMI's Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct, will not be considered.

Criteria

- Nominations shall be evaluated on value to the organization and best use of project management best practices.
- Nominations must be sent electronically to awards@projectmanager.org and received no later than 3/28/18.

Nomination and Presentation Procedures

- Submit nominations online. PMO of the Year and Project of the Year.
- There are no application fees to apply for any of the PMI NUC Professional Awards.
- Awards will be presented at the next Professional Development Conference.
- You will be contacted prior to the 2018 Professional Development Conference if you are a finalist.
- PMI NUC reserves the right within its sole discretion, and at any time up to the time of the presentation of the award, to determine that a nominee is or has become ineligible for the award.
- The award recipient will be publicized through PMI NUC communication channels and external media after the presentation of the award. A recipient may also coordinate additional publicity with PMI NUC after the presentation event.

Inquiries

- Please direct all inquires, comments and submissions to awards@projectmanager.org.
- Web site address: www.projectmanager.org